

CORTODINO XIII EDITION - YEAR 2023
COMPETITION NOTICE AND REGULATION
CORTODINO FILM FESTIVAL DINO DE LAURENTIIS

The Esseoesse Cultural Association announces the competition "CortoDino Film Festival Dino De Laurentiis 2023 - XIII Edition", a competition that stems from desire to remember and celebrate, in his native land and in commemorative and propositive terms, the figure and work of Dino De Laurentis. The Metropolitan city of Naples, Vesuvian areas, "Giorgio De Chirico's Secondary School of Art and Communication", the others secondary schools of the area and the main cultural associations of the Vesuvian and Campanian areas will collaborate in the event.

So, the main aim of the initiative is to create an opportunity for meeting, confrontation and knowledge of young filmmakers who enter the cinematographic sector, in which the influence left by the illustrious "Torrese" has certainly been significant, promoting cinematographic culture through the inclusion of disadvantaged people and the research and promotion of works by talents from Campania, and also national and international.

The presence of the world of solidarity, cultural associations and of school is the clearest sign of the purpose of connecting in particular with the world of young people.

Cortodino Film Festival XIII edition will take place in a period between October and November 2023. Cities, places and days of the event will be subsequently communicated.

possible selection phases, venues, locations and calendars of the projections, the date and places of awarding, as well as the event brochures will be communicated.

The authors, producers and distributors of the films admitted to the Official Selection of the "CortoDino" competition are required to indicate in their opening credits, promotional materials and press, and on any official websites, the Festival logo and the prize received.

Art. 5 – General rules.

1- The duly signed application form has the value of authorizing the processing of personal data, pursuant to Legislative Decree n.196/2003, by the organization of the Competition. The participant, pursuant to art. 7 of the aforementioned Legislative Decree, may obtain the correction of their data or object to their use through Certified Mail to be sent to: acesseoesse@pec.it.

2- The organizers are committed to the care and custody of the works received but are not responsible for any theft, loss or damage. The selected and awarded works will be conserved in the archives of the Esseoesse Cultural Association and used in non-profit cultural events and occasions to be communicated to the authors.

3- Foreign language works, under penalty of exclusion, must have Italian subtitles.

Considering the international vocation of the Competition, in the eventuality of projecting the selected shorts in various countries of the world, for works not in the English language, subtitles in English may be requested. This subtitling is the responsibility of each author (or the holder of the rights of the short).

4- Works of an advertising nature of commercial products, pornographic, racist, discriminatory or that apologize for violence, as well as propaganda works, will not be accepted.

5- The author is the only responsible for his work. The organizers of the competition, in accordance with the established rules on copyright, consider that the works presented are exempt from any artistic property rights or rights that could belong to third parties. The authors undertake to guarantee the organizers against any action that could be exercised against them by those entitled, including the musical theme and background music. The organization of the competition can not in any way be held responsible in the event of a dispute or litigation. The author is solely responsible for the content of the work.

6- For reasons of force majeure, for technical-administrative problems or to make improvements or in case of unforeseen exceptions, the organization may modify the present rules, communicating information on the promoting sites.

7- Participation in the competition implies full acceptance of these Rules. For each case not explicitly foreseen by the Regulations, the organizers of the competition will adjudicate.

Art.6

Any other aspect not included in the following selection procedure is the responsibility of the Executive Council of the Esseoesse Association, which has the power to derogate from the regulation itself in very specific and well-motivated cases. In the event of particular disputes, the laws in force prevail.
